

FUNCTIONAL DETERMINANTS AND CONFORMAL GEOMETRY

Bent Ørsted

Aarhus University, Denmark

In this lecture we shall survey some of the properties of determinants of elliptic operators on compact Riemannian manifolds. One important aspect is that of understanding how determinants of natural operators vary within a conformal class of metrics, where the connection to asymptotic expansions of heat kernels, and in this way the work of P. Gilkey, plays a crucial role.